Main Bio

Anthony Eulano advises clients in a wide range of commercial real estate transactions. His practice includes real estate development, land banking, acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, property management, brokerage matters and the formation and operation of homeowners' associations.

Anthony represents local, regional and national homebuilders, real estate investment trusts, commercial developers, financial institutions, landlords and tenants of various property types, and others that desire to invest in, or divest of, developed or raw real estate in Arizona, Nevada, Utah and other jurisdictions throughout the United States.

Anthony also serves as a member of Snell & Wilmer's Hiring Committee. In his spare time, Anthony enjoys restoring classic cars and investing in both short-term and long-term residential real estate rentals.
